Newsletter May 2024

For once the sun has got his hat on and its lovely out there, according to the forecast it should be rain but they are wrong again, know it wont last long but its very welcome and well overdue.

We did well in April with an enjoyable indoor Show on the 7th at Woodley Civic Hall where again standards were high, there was plenty to look at and the atmosphere was buzzing. Thanks go to all who attended, entered and helped out on the day we just need somehow to encourage more through the doors, next one in the pipeline for 20th October.

Annual Quiz Night was Friday 19th April at New Mills Golf Club, really popular night again raising £401 for charity which this year we agreed to split 50/50 between Reuben's Retreat and Willow Wood Hospice, both worthy local charities. Again our thanks go to all those who attended, Phil Smallwood the Quiz Master and Vick Handley for organising.

Coming up on Sunday 19th May is the first of our shockjudgings, dairy at Thornsett Fields, SK22 1AX courtesy of Richard Handforth. Its a 2pm start and dont forget if you want to judge as a member subscription needs to have been paid but dont worry subs can be paid on the day. This is open to members and non-members so please bring along a friend or 10 as its embarrassing if we have a poor turnout when our host has gone to a lot of work. If you can bring along a plate of cook or goodies even better to go on the share table.

The following Sunday its then Rally Day on Cheshire Show field. Romiley are entering 2 stands this year - the main stand is based on a county and we chose Lancashire and the second stand is 3 items for a picnic. Alex and Natasha Suppan, Holly and Niamh Blease, Laura Bennett, Hannah Mellor, Abbie Scott and Eleanor Mae Daniels are all busy working on their entries in anticipation.

Sheep stockjudging is Sunday 2nd June 2pm at Far Benfield, SK6 4NU courtesy of the Suppan family. Again open to all members and non-members and a plate of something for the share table, if possible, would be appreciated.

Going forward its our turn to run the Coffee Morning on the 8th June, Sports Day combined with archive sorting 11th August, Pig Racing night 15th November at Woodley Civic Hall with beef and horse stockjudging to sort along with Snowman Drive, table tennis and darts and our 2 annual memorial events. It's just all go.

If anyone is wishing to join us for Afternoon Tea this Thursday 12pm at Woodford Garden Centre please let me know by Tuesday 5pm (07855 223238) so I can book. Please note change from Brookside to Woodford.

I think thats about it for this month hoping we do well at the Rally and best wishes to those doing their GCSE's this time round.

Keep smiling.
